

Each October, cooperatives all across America celebrate the role, accomplishments and contributions of our nation’s cooperatives. The annual celebration plays a key role in promoting cooperatives to the public. Not many people are aware that one out of every four Americans belongs to a co-op.

“Local. Trusted. Serving You” emphasizes that co-ops are tied to their local communities in ways that other businesses are not. Co-op are owned and controlled by the people who use them, and exist to serve those members.

Across the United States, cooperatives are owned by more than 130 million people – and these numbers are growing.
